

Farco, Joseph A.

---

From: Trivier, Thomas L. on behalf of Safer, Jay G.
Sent: Friday, February 17, 2012 12:36 PM
To: Farco, Joseph A.
Subject: FW: Contract Shut down with text

-----Original Message-----

From: Gaily Von Schlichting [<mailto:gvons@absecon.com>]
Sent: Friday, February 17, 2012 11:58 AM
To: Safer, Jay G.
Subject: FW: Contract Shut down with text

Standard--
Gaily Von Schlichting
Director of Communications
Absecon Mills, Inc.
PO Box 672
Cologne NJ 08213

609.965.5373

On 2/9/12 9:30 AM, "Daniel Preston" <dan@cacaoholdings.com> wrote:

>Randy,

>

>You have been entirely non responsive for weeks via phone or email.
>This is unacceptable, you owe me $530k and have been in default of our >contract from the very beginning. Not sure you even realize but you >shorted me on the very first payment and every one of the few since.
>You have put me in the very uncomfortable position of having to chase >you constantly for payment. I shouldn't have to chase you. For more >than a year I have been incredibly patient about the situation but your >recent avoidance has pushed the situation too far.

>

>I reminded you recently that my attorney is financially tied to our >contract and you know I have kept him from coming after you this entire >time. I explained to you that I was $273k in arrears to my attorney and >he needed to close out his year. You didn't make the minimum payment I >thought would keep him at bay and then disappeared for weeks. You had >the money but were playing games. Its basically out of my hands now.

>

>You must pay in full or we will take back the machine (and you will >still owe me money). All gov personnel on this contract will be >notified that you are in breach and do not have the right to use the >technology. You may not legally deliver on your contract to ONR.

>

>I'm sorry it has gone this far. I wish you had respected your contract >with me.

>

>Regards,

>

>Daniel

>718-772-4802

>

>

>

>On 2/8/12 6:14 PM, "Randolph Taylor" <rstceo@comcast.net> wrote:

>

>>Dear Daniel,

>>

>>I don't understand your motivation to shut down this contract which is >>about >>to deliver a major break thru for our Soldiers. Is money so important to >>you

>>that you do not want to succeed in seeing this textile breakthrough >>delivered? I have been out of the office as I am quite ill. Although that >>did not stop me from wiring you some funds earlier this week. I just >>opened

>>and downloaded my e-mail to find this latest threat from you to stop our >>contract. My home phone number is 1-609-965-1737 call me as I am not sure >>What is it that I am supposed to get back to you about?

>>

>>Randy

>>

>>

>>

>>-----Original Message-----

>>From: Randolph Taylor [<mailto:rstceo@comcast.net>]

>>Sent: Wednesday, February 08, 2012 6:00 PM

>>To: 'Daniel Preston'; 'Dennis Walsh'

>>Cc: 'Gaily Von schlichting'; Bill Varian (variancity@yahoo.com);

>>cwilliams@absecon.com

>>Subject: Contract Shut down

>>

>>

>>

>>-----Original Message-----

>>From: Daniel Preston [<mailto:dan@cacaoholdings.com>]

>>Sent: Wednesday, February 08, 2012 12:56 PM

>>To: Dennis Walsh

>>Cc: Randy Taylor; Gaily Von schlichting

>>Subject: Re: 16 inch heat press

>>

>>I will look and call you, however Randy has not gotten back to me and >>this >>contract may be shut down by next week. -Daniel

>>

>>Sent from my iPhone

>>

>>On Feb 8, 2012, at 11:10 AM, "Dennis Walsh" <dennis.walsh36@yahoo.com>

>>wrote:

>>

>>> Randy/Dan,

>>>

>>> I need a 16 inch plus heat press so I can start making the shoot packs.

>>>

>>> Dennis

>>>

>>>

>>

>>

>

>